

OUR TRAMP ABOUT THE CITY. IT'S SO F. IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

Get the Magic City. BRUSSELLA carpets at 45 cents, worth 60, at Hoeft's.

THE L. and N. earnings the second week in February were $908,953.

LOUISVILLE is making a hard fight for the National Encampment, G. A. R.

Don't fail to see one of the best shows ever in Maysville at the Opera-house to night.

MISS EVIE SCHATZMANN, who has been ill at her home the past two weeks, is no better.

W. R. GREY, a prominent horseman of London, married Miss Mary Harris at Richmond.

JOHN ALLEN, a former Mayor of Aberdeen and well known in this city, died recently at Emporia, Kans.

The ladies should not fail to see Barkley's offerings at half value prices in Wells and Hand Turned Shoes.

THOMAS WARNER, the injured colored man at Washington died yesterday from the effects of a fractured skull.

AGUST SCHAEFER and James K. Lloyd represented Maysville at the Scottish Lite banquet at Cincinnati.

WALKER BACHMAN is improving after a week's severe illness. He has not been able to leave his room since last Monday.

HOBERT cash now paid for all kinds of country produce and poultry. Crawford & Cady, grocers, 33 East Third street.

WALSH & EVANS, contractors, have been awarded the contract to build a residence for Charles H. French at Mt. Olivet.

The lecture of Bill Nye and William Hawley Smith was well attended last night and those who availed themselves of the opportunity of attending were well pleased.

MAIL CARRIER WILLIAM DAVIS, who has been laid up for several days as a case of the grip, was able to be out yesterday afternoon.

WALSH & EVANS, contractors, are now prepared to bid on masonry work of all kinds. Both gentlemen are well known and those who need their services are sure of getting first-class work.

MAISON LOWRY has been jailed at Flemingsburg in default of $1,500 bail. He is charged with being an accessory with Bud Lowry in the recent killing of Walker at Nepton. Bud Lowry is still at large.

The New Jellifer farical comedy, "A Quick Match," suits everybody. It plot enough to make it interesting, comedy enough to make it funny, sentiment and music enough to make it an evening long to be remembered.

M. C. HUTCHINSON was arrested and fined $5 and costs for being jolly and disorderly at the K. of P. celebration last Monday evening. The fine and costs amounted to $9.95, which was paid, and the defendant discharged.

THE Magic City coupon will begin in Monday's issue of THE LEDGER. It will consist of the finest views of the World's Fair ever published and no one should fail to get No. 1 and all others. Six coupons and 10 cents get them. Get Monday's paper and cut out the coupon.

Successful Surgery. Ripley Bie—Dr. J. L. Wylie successfully removed an ovarian tumor from Mrs. Thomas Palmer of Huntington, W. Va.

The patient was at the home of Mrs. Rachel Shaw in East Ripley and underwent a diet being necessary in order to place the patient in better condition for the severe operation.

There were present and assisted Dr. S. Pangborn of Maysville; Dr. Osborn of Georgetown; and Drs. Bell, Winters and Alex. Wylie of this city.

"PAUL KACVAN" tonight. Watch for our grand premium, the Magic City, in a few days.

CHENOWETH'S Dentine cleanses and beautifies the teeth. Try it.

THE "Honey Bee" is a favorite with smokers who appreciate a good cigar.

THE most popular cigar with experienced smokers is the "Honey Bee." Try it.

WE are ready to meet all competition on dry goods, carpets, etc. Hoeft's Bros.

Just received lot of nice Vase Lamps at prices to go, at Schatzmann's, Market street.

JOSEPH V. DORT of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but some of them seemed to do him any good, but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

ALBERT FAVORITE of Arkansas City, Kans., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me in a bad way, so that I was compelled to give up my work. I was recommended to try it, and all speak well of it." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 6th, 1894.—The Shenandoah Medical Co., Nashville, Tenn., Gentlemen: I am writing to you to speak of your Antiseptic, as I consider it the best I have ever used. I have recom-

ended it to others, and all speak well of it. I never would get rid of it. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some four or five years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough and cold were cured. I was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

ALBERT FAVORITE of Arkansas City, Kans., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me in a bad way, so that I was compelled to give up my work. I was recommended to try it, and all speak well of it." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 6th, 1894.—The Shenandoah Medical Co., Nashville, Tenn., Gentlemen: I am writing to you to speak of your Antiseptic, as I consider it the best I have ever used. I have recom-

ended it to others, and all speak well of it. I never would get rid of it. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some four or five years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough and cold were cured. I was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

ALBERT FAVORITE of Arkansas City, Kans., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me in a bad way, so that I was compelled to give up my work. I was recommended to try it, and all speak well of it." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 6th, 1894.—The Shenandoah Medical Co., Nashville, Tenn., Gentlemen: I am writing to you to speak of your Antiseptic, as I consider it the best I have ever used. I have recom-

ended it to others, and all speak well of it. I never would get rid of it. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some four or five years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough and cold were cured. I was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

ALBERT FAVORITE of Arkansas City, Kans., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me in a bad way, so that I was compelled to give up my work. I was recommended to try it, and all speak well of it." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 6th, 1894.—The Shenandoah Medical Co., Nashville, Tenn., Gentlemen: I am writing to you to speak of your Antiseptic, as I consider it the best I have ever used. I have recom-

ended it to others, and all speak well of it. I never would get rid of it. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some four or five years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough and cold were cured. I was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

ALBERT FAVORITE of Arkansas City, Kans., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me in a bad way, so that I was compelled to give up my work. I was recommended to try it, and all speak well of it." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 6th, 1894.—The Shenandoah Medical Co., Nashville, Tenn., Gentlemen: I am writing to you to speak of your Antiseptic, as I consider it the best I have ever used. I have recom-

ended it to others, and all speak well of it. I never would get rid of it. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some four or five years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough and cold were cured. I was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

ALBERT FAVORITE of Arkansas City, Kans., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me in a bad way, so that I was compelled to give up my work. I was recommended to try it, and all speak well of it." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 6th, 1894.—The Shenandoah Medical Co., Nashville, Tenn., Gentlemen: I am writing to you to speak of your Antiseptic, as I consider it the best I have ever used. I have recom-

ended it to others, and all speak well of it. I never would get rid of it. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some four or five years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough and cold were cured. I was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

ALBERT FAVORITE of Arkansas City, Kans., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me in a bad way, so that I was compelled to give up my work. I was recommended to try it, and all speak well of it." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 6th, 1894.—The Shenandoah Medical Co., Nashville, Tenn., Gentlemen: I am writing to you to speak of your Antiseptic, as I consider it the best I have ever used. I have recom-

ended it to others, and all speak well of it. I never would get rid of it. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some four or five years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough and cold were cured. I was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

ALBERT FAVORITE of Arkansas City, Kans., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me in a bad way, so that I was compelled to give up my work. I was recommended to try it, and all speak well of it." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 6th, 1894.—The Shenandoah Medical Co., Nashville, Tenn., Gentlemen: I am writing to you to speak of your Antiseptic, as I consider it the best I have ever used. I have recom-

ended it to others, and all speak well of it. I never would get rid of it. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some four or five years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough and cold were cured. I was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

ALBERT FAVORITE of Arkansas City, Kans., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me in a bad way, so that I was compelled to give up my work. I was recommended to try it, and all speak well of it." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 6th, 1894.—The Shenandoah Medical Co., Nashville, Tenn., Gentlemen: I am writing to you to speak of your Antiseptic, as I consider it the best I have ever used. I have recom-

ended it to others, and all speak well of it. I never would get rid of it. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some four or five years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough and cold were cured. I was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

ALBERT FAVORITE of Arkansas City, Kans., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me in a bad way, so that I was compelled to give up my work. I was recommended to try it, and all speak well of it." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 6th, 1894.—The Shenandoah Medical Co., Nashville, Tenn., Gentlemen: I am writing to you to speak of your Antiseptic, as I consider it the best I have ever used. I have recom-

ended it to others, and all speak well of it. I never would get rid of it. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some four or five years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough and cold were cured. I was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

THE Magic City. CABINETS $1.99 per doz. at Parker's.

WE carry the largest line of white goods and embroideries at lowest prices. Hoeft's.

Known in Maysville. The Ashland News has this concerning the bright little grandson and namesake of the Hon. R. B. Love of this city:

One of the brightest and earliest little boys to be seen any place is Robert, the six year-old son of Rev. J. S. Simms, Pastor of the M. E. Church, South, in this city. Though his father is a preacher, and one of the most talented ones of the Methodist aversion to the gay dance, and says he won't dance, but he will act. He can sing all the late songs, and is practicing some of his acrobatic feats, greatly to the amusement of his friends. He is a great favorite with his neighbors, who regard him as something of a prodigy. And take him through and through he is a genius and whatever profession he chooses he no doubt will elevate it and make a grand success of his calling.

John W. Boulden has returned from Paris.

Mrs. Martha Power is visiting relatives in Pittsburgh.

Miss Anna Shackelford has closed her school in the country and returned home.

Miss Carrie Oldham is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Fannie Savage, at Vancouver.

John Butler of Covington has returned home after spending a few days here with friends.

Clarence Hilth, formerly of this city, is here from Louisville in the interest of the Book of the Fair.

Mrs. Dr. George F. Thompson of Frankfort is visiting her mother, Mrs. Kate Byrne, and sister, Mrs. John O'Keefe, of West Second street.

Cincinnati Post.—A. F. Respass, an attaché of the Auditor's office, Frankfort, is at the Grand. He is on his way to visit his old home, Maysville. He says it is a little early to discuss the Kentucky gubernatorial race.

For Rent. That Splendid Dwelling, No. 221 West Second Street.

BATH ROOM. LAUNDRY. WATER CLOSET. With Hot and Cold Water.

Rent $25 a Month, and Owner Pays Water Rent.

Publication at once. Apply to Mrs. L. V. DAVIS.

NEW GAME LAW. The Novitiate Simmonds Had Better Look a Little Old Now.

Kentucky's new game law is worth studying by amateur hunters as well as professionals.

Squirrels are protected between the 1st of February and the 15th day of June, except gray squirrels, which may be killed at any time for the protection of crops.

Wild duck and geese are secure between 1st day of April and 15th of August.

Wild turkey can roam at will between 1st day of February and 1st of September, and woodcock between 1st of February and 30th of June.

Quail, partridges or pheasants are protected between 1st day of January and 15th of November; doves between 1st of February and 1st of August.

The following song, or insectivorous birds are protected throughout the year except where same are destructive to fruit and grain crops. Thrush, meadow lark, finch, martin, swallow, woodpecker, flicker, oriole, redbird, tanager, catbird, bluebird.

is allowed to trap, box or snare any quail or pheasant.

No person shall rob or destroy the nests or eggs of any wild bird whatsoever, save only those of a predatory nature and destructive of other birds and fowls.

Anyone guilty of violating any of the provisions of the preceding sections shall be fined not less than $5 nor more than $25, and the same fine for exposing game for sale within the protected season.

WOMEN WHO GO SHOPPING.

HERBREW PHYSICIAN'S GLANCE AT THE CITY'S CROWDS.

The "Bargain Counter" and the "Serious and Malarious Strain on Women That Comes from Buying for the Household—The Preserver Against Poverty of Blood and Nervous Energy.

"Women read the Sunday papers in the big cities and the daily papers in the towns for the advertisements of marked down sales," says The Boston Globe. "Even as little girls they think of 'going a shopping.'"

For Indigestion, Liver and Kidney ailments of enfeebled nerves, Celery Compound has been established in thousands of every village and town where there is a good physician.

Paine's Celery Compound is the marvelous preserver that has saved so many thousand men and women struggling for existence against poverty of blood and nervous energy. It makes people well. Read the experience of Mrs. E. M. Abbott of Chelsea, Mass., who gives the following voluntary testimony:

"I have taken Paine's Celery Compound and it is all that is recommended to be. My mother and father have also taken it; it has given them new life. They take it every spring or whenever they do not feel just right. Mother was all run down last spring, and after taking a few doses of the Compound she gained new strength. We would not be without Paine's Celery Compound as a family medicine."

To a man, shopping is a nuisance; vexatious, tiring to his patience, and actually fatiguing to his muscles and nerves. It is often no less so to a woman. The careworn purchasers, especially on rainy days, burdened with flapping, wet skirts, umbrellas and bundles, impress a physician with a sort of horror. It is a necessary. There is a total disregard of the excessive strain upon their nerves and end system.

"The danger of thus overtaxing the centers which manufacture the nervous energy is impossible to estimate," said a wise physician. "One longs to hear some authoritative voice call out: 'Stop! Stop!'"

Weakness is an element of all diseases. Faulty nutrition of some important part of the body brings easy exhaustion in even slight undertaking. Overwork throughout the United States and Canada, in every village and town where there is a good physician.

Paine's Celery Compound is the marvelous preserver that has saved so many thousand men and women struggling for existence against poverty of blood and nervous energy. It makes people well. Read the experience of Mrs. E. M. Abbott of Chelsea, Mass., who gives the following voluntary testimony:

"I have taken Paine's Celery Compound and it is all that is recommended to be. My mother and father have also taken it; it has given them new life. They take it every spring or whenever they do not feel just right. Mother was all run down last spring, and after taking a few doses of the Compound she gained new strength. We would not be without Paine's Celery Compound as a family medicine."

To a man, shopping is a nuisance; vexatious, tiring to his patience, and actually fatiguing to his muscles and nerves. It is often no less so to a woman. The careworn purchasers, especially on rainy days, burdened with flapping, wet skirts, umbrellas and bundles, impress a physician with a sort of horror. It is a necessary. There is a total disregard of the excessive strain upon their nerves and end system.

"The danger of thus overtaxing the centers which manufacture the nervous energy is impossible to estimate," said a wise physician. "One longs to hear some authoritative voice call out: 'Stop! Stop!'"

Weakness is an element of all diseases. Faulty nutrition of some important part of the body brings easy exhaustion in even slight undertaking. Overwork throughout the United States and Canada, in every village and town where there is a good physician.

Paine's Celery Compound is the marvelous preserver that has saved so many thousand men and women struggling for existence against poverty of blood and nervous energy. It makes people well. Read the experience of Mrs. E. M. Abbott of Chelsea, Mass., who gives the following voluntary testimony:

"I have taken Paine's Celery Compound and it is all that is recommended to be. My mother and father have also taken it; it has given them new life. They take it every spring or whenever they do not feel just right. Mother was all run down last spring, and after taking a few doses of the Compound she gained new strength. We would not be without Paine's Celery Compound as a family medicine."

To a man, shopping is a nuisance; vexatious, tiring to his patience, and actually fatiguing to his muscles and nerves. It is often no less so to a woman. The careworn purchasers, especially on rainy days, burdened with flapping, wet skirts, umbrellas and bundles, impress a physician with a sort of horror. It is a necessary. There is a total disregard of the excessive strain upon their nerves and end system.

"The danger of thus overtaxing the centers which manufacture the nervous energy is impossible to estimate," said a wise physician. "One longs to hear some authoritative voice call out: 'Stop! Stop!'"

Weakness is an element of all diseases. Faulty nutrition of some important part of the body brings easy exhaustion in even slight undertaking. Overwork throughout the United States and Canada, in every village and town where there is a good physician.

Paine's Celery Compound is the marvelous preserver that has saved so many thousand men and women struggling for existence against poverty of blood and nervous energy. It makes people well. Read the experience of Mrs. E. M. Abbott of Chelsea, Mass., who gives the following voluntary testimony:

"I have taken Paine's Celery Compound and it is all that is recommended to be. My mother and father have also taken it; it has given them new life. They take it every spring or whenever they do not feel just right. Mother was all run down last spring, and after taking a few doses of the Compound she gained new strength. We would not be without Paine's Celery Compound as a family medicine."

To a man, shopping is a nuisance; vexatious, tiring to his patience, and actually fatiguing to his muscles and nerves. It is often no less so to a woman. The careworn purchasers, especially on rainy days, burdened with flapping, wet skirts, umbrellas and bundles, impress a physician with a sort of horror. It is a necessary. There is a total disregard of the excessive strain upon their nerves and end system.

"The danger of thus overtaxing the centers which manufacture the nervous energy is impossible to estimate," said a wise physician. "One longs to hear some authoritative voice call out: 'Stop! Stop!'"

Weakness is an element of all diseases. Faulty nutrition of some important part of the body brings easy exhaustion in even slight undertaking. Overwork throughout the United States and Canada, in every village and town where there is a good physician.

Paine's Celery Compound is the marvelous preserver that has saved so many thousand men and women struggling for existence against poverty of blood and nervous energy. It makes people well. Read the experience of Mrs. E. M. Abbott of Chelsea, Mass., who gives the following voluntary testimony:

"I have taken Paine's Celery Compound and it is all that is recommended to be. My mother and father have also taken it; it has given them new life. They take it every spring or whenever they do not feel just right. Mother was all run down last spring, and after taking a few doses of the Compound she gained new strength. We would not be without Paine's Celery Compound as a family medicine."

To a man, shopping is a nuisance; vexatious, tiring to his patience, and actually fatiguing to his muscles and nerves. It is often no less so to a woman. The careworn purchasers, especially on rainy days, burdened with flapping, wet skirts, umbrellas and bundles, impress a physician with a sort of horror. It is a necessary. There is a total disregard of the excessive strain upon their nerves and end system.

"The danger of thus overtaxing the centers which manufacture the nervous energy is impossible to estimate," said a wise physician. "One longs to hear some authoritative voice call out: 'Stop! Stop!'"

Weakness is an element of all diseases. Faulty nutrition of some important part of the body brings easy exhaustion in even slight undertaking. Overwork throughout the United States and Canada, in every village and town where there is a good physician.

Paine's Celery Compound is the marvelous preserver that has saved so many thousand men and women struggling for existence against poverty of blood and nervous energy. It makes people well. Read the experience of Mrs. E. M. Abbott of Chelsea, Mass., who gives the following voluntary testimony:

"I have taken Paine's Celery Compound and it is all that is recommended to be. My mother and father have also taken it; it has given them new life. They take it every spring or whenever they do not feel just right. Mother was all run down last spring, and after taking a few doses of the Compound she gained new strength. We would not be without Paine's Celery Compound as a family medicine."

To a man, shopping is a nuisance; vexatious, tiring to his patience, and actually fatiguing to his muscles and nerves. It is often no less so to a woman. The careworn purchasers, especially on rainy days, burdened with flapping, wet skirts, umbrellas and bundles, impress a physician with a sort of horror. It is a necessary. There is a total disregard of the excessive strain upon their nerves and end system.

"The danger of thus overtaxing the centers which manufacture the nervous energy is impossible to estimate," said a wise physician. "One longs to hear some authoritative voice call out: 'Stop! Stop!'"

Weakness is an element of all diseases. Faulty nutrition of some important part of the body brings easy exhaustion in even slight undertaking. Overwork throughout the United States and Canada, in every village and town where there is a good physician.

Paine's Celery Compound is the marvelous preserver that has saved so many thousand men and women struggling for existence against poverty of blood and nervous energy. It makes people well. Read the experience of Mrs. E. M. Abbott of Chelsea, Mass., who gives the following voluntary testimony:

"I have taken Paine's Celery Compound and it is all that is recommended to be. My mother and father have also taken it; it has given them new life. They take it every spring or whenever they do not feel just right. Mother was all run down last spring, and after taking a few doses of the Compound she gained new strength. We would not be without Paine's Celery Compound as a family medicine."

To a man, shopping is a nuisance; vexatious, tiring to his patience, and actually fatiguing to his muscles and nerves. It is often no less so to a woman. The careworn purchasers, especially on rainy days, burdened with flapping, wet skirts, umbrellas and bundles, impress a physician with a sort of horror. It is a necessary. There is a total disregard of the excessive strain upon their nerves and end system.

"The danger of thus overtaxing the centers which manufacture the nervous energy is impossible to estimate," said a wise physician. "One longs to hear some authoritative voice call out: 'Stop! Stop!'" over with it. are never young, feel Compound power. A grateful after a few days. ble remedy, and every duty, mental.

For Indigestion, Liver and Kidney ailments of enfeebled nerves, Celery Compound has been established in thousands of every village and town where there is a good physician.

Paine's Celery Compound is the marvelous preserver that has saved so many thousand men and women struggling for existence against poverty of blood and nervous energy. It makes people well. Read the experience of Mrs. E. M. Abbott of Chelsea, Mass., who gives the following voluntary testimony:

"I have taken Paine's Celery Compound and it is all that is recommended to be. My mother and father have also taken it; it has given them new life. They take it every spring or whenever they do not feel just right. Mother was all run down last spring, and after taking a few doses of the Compound she gained new strength. We would not be without Paine's Celery Compound as a family medicine."

To a man, shopping is a nuisance; vexatious, tiring to his patience, and actually fatiguing to his muscles and nerves. It is often no less so to a woman. The careworn purchasers, especially on rainy days, burdened with flapping, wet skirts, umbrellas and bundles, impress a physician with a sort of horror. It is a necessary. There is a total disregard of the excessive strain upon their nerves and end system.

"The danger of thus overtaxing the centers which manufacture the nervous energy is impossible to estimate," said a wise physician. "One longs to hear some authoritative voice call out: 'Stop! Stop!'"

Weakness is an element of all diseases. Faulty nutrition of some important part of the body brings easy exhaustion in even slight undertaking. Overwork throughout the United States and Canada, in every village and town where there is a good physician.

Paine's Celery Compound is the marvelous preserver that has saved so many thousand men and women struggling for existence against poverty of blood and nervous energy. It makes people well. Read the experience of Mrs. E. M. Abbott of Chelsea, Mass., who gives the following voluntary testimony:

"I have taken Paine's Celery Compound and it is all that is recommended to be. My mother and father have also taken it; it has given them new life. They take it every spring or whenever they do not feel just right. Mother was all run down last spring, and after taking a few doses of the Compound she gained new strength. We would not be without Paine's Celery Compound as a family medicine."

To a man, shopping is a nuisance; vexatious, tiring to his patience, and actually fatiguing to his muscles and nerves. It is often no less so to a woman. The careworn purchasers, especially on rainy days, burdened with flapping, wet skirts, umbrellas and bundles, impress a physician with a sort of horror. It is a

May No. 1934

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

MAJOR DAVID H. LAEWELLEN died in New York a few days since, the result of an accident in alighting from a train at Lexington some weeks ago. The Major was an ex-Confederate soldier, and for years had traveled in Kentucky as representative of the house of Hilton, Ringnes & Co. He had a number of friends in this city who will regret his death.

The protracted meeting at the M. E. Church, South, is still in progress. There has been one conversion and three additions to the church.

W. T. Grover, Sr., Frank Tuel, Ollie Tuel and Will Ed. McKenzie have sold all their possessions here, closed up their business affairs and will set out for Kansas on the 27th of this month. They say they are going to stay.

JOE BODE, ARTISTIC PAINTER, has opened a shop at corner Second and Short streets, and is prepared to do all kinds of ornamental, sign or carriage painting. Call and get prices before going elsewhere. For Jan

MARSH.

Geo. F. Eitel's SAMPLE ROOM

Oyster and Chop House.

Meals at all hours. Oysters in every style.
Day and night. Old Whisky a specialty.
125 Market street, Mayeville, Ky.

A. A. A. fully compiled pocket compendium of the American Protective Association, now ready and orders will be filled promptly. The Manual contains thirty-two pages of interesting and instructive information relating to the A.
A. A. together with other matter pertinent therein. It is ably edited, and is in a convenient form on book paper, presenting an attractive appearance. Every member of the order should carry one of these little books in his pocket for reference. The Manual will be sent to you on receipt of the special price to members. Agents wanted.

TOLUENO AMERICAN
Toluca, Oahu.

Septembar and Decembar. George C. Virgin, Constable.

Currys-ville-John H. Wells and W. W. Currys, Magistrates, hold courts on the first Monday and third Thursday in March, September and December. H. T. Suttles, Constable.

East Leaf-Samuel K. Wartin and Powell M. Wartin, Magistrates, hold courts on the second and fourth Saturdays in March, June, September and December. Charles Wallingford, Constable.

Elkins-William Luttrell and Joseph W. Elkins, Magistrates, hold courts on the second and fourth Saturdays in March, June, September and December. James H. Farrow, Constable.

... ..